No longer meeting face to face. We will schedule an appointment for those needed assistance with bills. The Food Pantry is every Monday at 4pm. We also provide cash assistance for rent, utilities, bus passes and prescription drugs. Please note: Due to COVID-19m the process has changed. You must sign in and then if you are a customer that has been with us before you will return to wait outside in your car or outside the building. New customers must fill out an application and we will process your application. No one is allowed in the pantry. When your bag is ready we'll call out your name, so leave the windows of your car down. You will need ID, bills, and other documentation for proof of income.

St. Vincent De Paul Catholic Church:
